

Contents

Foreword VII

Acknowledgments VIII

Introduction: The Religious Concordance 1

De Pace fidei in Recent Scholarship 9

The Word of Concordance 15

1 The Prayer for Peace 19

The Illuminative Word 24

The Dialectical Word 30

The Hierarchical Word 34

The Conversational Word 39

2 The Search for Peace 48

Nicholas of Cusa's Journeys 48

The Search for Reform 56

Ascending the Summit of Religious Peace 62

Late Medieval Christian Approaches to Islam 77

3 The Mind's Road to Peace 87

Hierarchical Dialectics of Peace: Bonaventura's *Itinerarium
Mentis in Deum* 90

Blinded by the Sun: Platonic Influences 100

From Confusion to Concordance: Reversal of Babylon and the New Pentecost 110

4 Seeking the Peace of the City 115

The New Alexander: Pius II and Mehmed II 115

War and Peace: Pius II and Nicholas of Cusa 124

5 Visions of Peace 143

Envisioning Peace: De docta ignorantia and De pace fidei 145

Envisioning Dialogue: Nicholas of Cusa's Letter to John of Segovia 149

Envisioning Unity: From Council to Pope to Prophet of Religious Peace 154

6 The Word of Peace	177
The Unfolding Word: De docta ignorantia and De pace fidei	181
The Magnetic Word: De concordantia catholica and De pace fidei	186
The Inherent Word: Cribratio Alkorani and De pace fidei	188
The Enfolding Word: De visione Dei and De pace fidei	191
7 For the Peace of Jerusalem	198
Conclusion: Nicholas of Cusa's Christocentric Approach to Islam	223
Bibliography	227
Index	242