Abstract: The publication Katolickie rozgłoszenie radiowe w Polsce w służbie ewangelizacji [...] is the first book by Grzegorz Umiński – young researcher, coworker of the Department of Modern Forms of Faith Transmission of The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin (Poland), a PhD student of Media Education and student of information technology. In his monograph deals with the issue of using media for the evangelisation. The main corpus of the work is divided into three chapters that constitute the logical and coherent whole. Each of the chapters is devoted to the discussion of particular matters.
